

TLILIC2005A LICENCE TO OPERATE A BOOM-TYPE ELEVATING WORK PLATFORM (BOOM LENGTH 11 METRES OR MORE)

Duration:

Option 1 – 3 days involving training, supervision and assessment

Option 2 – 1 day training, logbook hours in the workplace, 1 day assessment

Who Should Attend?

Any person intending to or currently operating a elevated work platform in workplaces under the WH&S Legislation. Legislation requires the operator to hold a high risk work licence.

Expiry: 5 years

Topics:

- Legislation
- High risk work requirements
- Responsibilities of ticket holder
- Definition
- Types of EWP and components
- Duties of a licensed operator
- Safety Features
- Modifications
- Pre operational checks
- After start checks
- Periodic checks
- Hazards
- Fibreglass booms
- Planning and selection
- Site planning
- Operational plan
- Harnesses
- Operating
- Emergency decent device
- Shut down

PTY LTD
RESERVE TRAINING & SAFETY

Phone: 1300 360 085

Award:

Issue of Statement of Attainment and AS1 Form for the application process at Australia Post. WHSQ will post a HRW photographic licence to the address provided.

Cancellation / Refund:

Reserve's policy will be provided at enrolment.

NATIONALLY RECOGNISED
TRAINING